Approval of Minutes. The May minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report and Approval of Budget. Zachary Fruchtengarten. Nothing new to report.

Continuing Business:

Website Subcommittee. No update. Keri still does not have access to the website.

Legislative Subcommittee. Ryan

Changes to the FAPA statute, removes "imminent" at a contested hearing.

There has been blowback from 318. Some think it changes the presumption of custody. Trying to correct this misconception.

Awards Subcommittee. Stephanie. No report

Hardship Subcommittee. No Report.

2019 Annual Conference. Shannon. Everything is on schedule and moving forward. Still need a sponsor for one event. Evelyn Freed is sponsoring food and the room. There will be case evaluations.

List serve Update. Amanda. Fairly quiet.

New Members. Shannon. The committee vetted five different potential candidates, both to fill Andy Iver's spot immediately as well as the vacancy that will occur when Debra leaves at the end of the year. A discussion was had at length about each candidate. The committee voted and approves putting forth the following names: Dan Miller to fill Andy's vacancy; Erin Fennerty to fill Debra's vacancy.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Waiver for law students was discussed and approved.
2. Family Law Section Directory on website – approval to remove the list since this is maintained by the OSB.
3. Reserve Policy – discussion regarding the need to maintain our reserves as we change annual conference location back to Salishan since we do not know the cost of the conference starting next year.
4. Slate for 2020 –
