Treasurer's Report: Zachary Fruchtengarten

- Not much to report, it was a quiet month.

Continuing Business:

- Website Subcommittee Update – Keri Smith
 - Nothing new.
 - In the process of being transferred over to the State Bar
- Legislative Subcommittee Update –
 - Deferred
- Awards Subcommittee Update – Stephanie Wilson & Jennifer Brown
 - Quite a few nominations for the Professionalism Award and a few nominations for the Goren Award.
- Hardship Policy Subcommittee Update – Zachary Fruchtengarten, Murray Petitt & Kimberly Quach
 - Nothing new
- 2020 Annual Conference Subcommittee Update – Amanda Thorpe, Keri Smith

- Talked with the Bar regarding our contract with Salishan
 - Seems the best thing to do is to cancel the conference now due to the uncertainty of who would attend, even if we are later allowed to have large gatherings
 - Not enough time to deal with this issue now when we don't when the next announcement from the Governor would come
 - Discussion about moving the contract to 2021 and 2022.
 - Smaller replacement CLE
 - Nick T. at OSB has already negotiated successfully with Salishan to reschedule
- After further discussion there was a motion to cancel the 2020 conference at Salishan and negotiate to extend it to 2021 and 2022. Motion approved unanimously.
- Listserve Update
 - No discussion
- Campaign for Equal Justice Issue
 - No discussion

New Business:

1. Chief Justice Order the preceding Friday
 - The Courts will be having a 17% reduction in services
 - Court furlough days: May 29, June 26 and July 17.
 - Legislative proposals from the Law Improvement Program
 1. Two proposals
 - a. Estate planning committee regarding automatic revocation of Powers of Attorney on dissolution
 - b. Indian Law section regarding full faith and credit of tribal orders and judgments
