Treasurer's Report: None

Continuing Business:

- Website Subcommittee Update: Keri Smith
 - Recent meeting minutes need to be added to website, but otherwise nothing to report.
- Legislative Subcommittee Update
 - Grabe reported the deadline for second chamber deadlines is tomorrow, and none of the bills previously discussed moved forward for further consideration. Grabe also reported the courts will likely see an increase in the next budget due to better revenue forecasts.
- Awards Subcommittee Update: Stephanie Wilson and Jennifer Brown
 - Wilson reported she is working on having plaques prepared for the 2020 awards recipients.
 - Brown reported they are working on drafting an announcement for the Bar Bulletin honoring the 2020 awards recipients.
 - No nominations are being solicited for this year.
- Hardship Policy Subcommittee Update:
 - None

- Annual Conference Subcommittee Update: Amanda Thorpe and Keri Smith
 - It was confirmed with Salishan that the annual conference will not take place this year. Thorpe reported that revised minimum attendance numbers for next year's conference are still being discussed. Also, Salishan will honor the reduced room rate for the weekend of the conference if people who have already reserved rooms just want to get away for the weekend.
 - Discussion about trying to partner with the OAFLP for a virtual fall conference as they are already hosting one. Thorpe will get in contact with Smith about possible partnering, as Smith is the acting president of the OAFLP

- Listserv Update:
 - None

Adjourn: Approx. 12:22 p.m.
